LAUNCH OF A MODERN APPROACH TO COMBAT SCHOOL BULLYING, WORKPLACE HARASSMENT, AND MORE BY GIVING A VOICE TO THOSE WHO FEEL THEY DON'T HAVE ONE!

“fromanonymous.com-

In a proactive environment, one never knows what they may have prevented from happening, however, in a reactive one, we always wonder what we could have done to prevent a bad situation or result”

Nutley, NJ February 13, 2018: <http://fromanonymous.com/> is launching a website that will help you report different kinds of offenses anonymously.

Established with the sole motive of providing expedient solutions to the problems of the silent and unheard, fromanonymous.com is planning to be launched within the first quarter of 2018. In taking a 21st century-approach that is different from lectures and training seminars, this website's chief aim is to help the victim and extend a helping hand to those who need one but are too afraid.

We provide a forum for victims (and others) to anonymously report incidents of bullying, drugs or weapons in schools, and harassment or whistleblowing in the workplace, among others. Our site is set to launch, ready to discreetly handle these problems in a lawful manner. Although this process is anonymous, it will bring about a two-way communication that is intended to give a voice to those who feel they don't have one.

Who are we?

fromanonymous.com is a service that assists those who wish to maintain their anonymity, providing a forum for victims (and others) to voice their problems and concerns either at school or at work. Extensive dollars are spent on anti-bullying messages, campaigns, as well as anti-harassment and whistleblower trainings, but none of these “solutions” address the victims' in giving them the platform for their voices to be heard.

Covering issues of concern both at school and in the workplace, we work toward giving the victim, or anyone for that matter, a chance to report an issue, all the while remaining anonymous. The simple yet necessary concept behind our site is to reduce the number of abused or suicidal individuals, in addition to addressing other sensitive concerns encountered by both children and adults. What's more, our site is all-embracing, as parents or friends/acquaintances of victims can use the services of fromanonymous.com.

What is our company's goal?

We work toward the ultimate goal of giving a voice to those who feel they don't have one, victim or not. The main reason behind non-reporting of bullying, drugs or weapons in schools, workplace harassment or aversion to whistleblowing is the fear of reprisal, among others. Our service removes the “fear factor,” providing an anonymous reporting system that helps to address the aforementioned areas of concern.

fromanonymous.com is a modern web-based application combined with email, but can be used on a mobile device without downloading an app. While maintaining our users’ anonymity, our service handles all communication through our site, facilitating a dialogue between sender and receiver.

How do we work?

There are four simple portals a reporting individual can use, including:

- 1.) File a Report: This allows the victim (or anyone) to report an incident, whether at school or in the workplace, and, most importantly, to remain anonymous.
- 2.) Respond to a Report: This permits the receiver of the filed report to communicate with the anonymous party in a secure manner.
- 3.) Go Public: In case of non-receipt to a response, the filer may use this portal to “Go Public,” thus putting the recipient on notice and encouraging him or her to reply in a timely manner.
- 4.) Be Direct: This portal is meant to help anyone who wants to send a message and remain anonymous; it also allows the receiver to communicate with the sender.
